

Prof. Dr.-Ing. Dr. oec. Thomas Schildhauer

- computer scientist, marketing expert and internet researcher.

In 1999 he founded the Institute of Electronic Business, the first affiliated institute of the Berlin University of Arts, of which he has been the director for 20 years and is now since October 2019 the chairman of the board of trustees. In his capacity as a professor at the Berlin University of the Arts, he holds the chair for marketing with a focus on electronic business, conducts the Berlin Career College as its director and teaches in various master's programmes. As the founder and director of the Alexander von Humboldt Institute for Internet and Society, he is responsible for the research area "internet-enabled innovation". Since 2017, he is among the project leaders and principal investigators of the Weizenbaum Institut – The German Internet Institut, where he is leading the research group on data based business model innovation. Besides, he is principal investigator of the Einstein Center Digital Future (ECDF) and since 2013 the founder and chairman of the “Council of Internet Sages”, a scientific advisory board of the IEB. He is advisor of several industry and consulting companies, e.g. EQUEO-learning solutions, Skubch and Company – Strategy consulting, Blue Chip Computer, Stone One, von Neuem, cbe.